"God bless the man that invented the WAVERLEY BELLE, so says Sancho Panza and so say all its lady riders."

This WAVERLEY BELLE will convince all riders that the above is the true version of that world famous quotation.

It is a perfect wheel—Perfect in its workmanship, and unexcelled for its grace and ease of motion.

KAUAI.

The Young Lady an Honored Guest in a Scotch Village.

(Anstruther Record.)

Princess Kaiulani of Hawaii is the only child of the late Princess Like- like, a niece of the late King Kalakaua and of the Queen Liliuokalani, and has only just completed her twentieth year. She left her home in 1889, and has since spent most of her time in the British Isles. Her education was chiefly carried on under the direction of Miss Sharp, at Great Harrowden Hall, Northamptonshire. She is a clever and accomplished young lady, paints well, and possesses strong musical tastes, and thoroughly enjoys all outdoor amusements, besides evincing a great fondness for horses and dogs. She is in the meantime keeping herself entirely aloof from politics.

In the spring of 1893, the Princess visited the United States and was most favorably impressed with all she saw there. She stayed some time in Washington, Boston and New York, being very well and cordially received by the American people.

She lived last winter in the south of France with her father, Mr. Clegborn, and after a month's visit to Paris, she went to reside in Jersey. Visits are now being made to friends in Scotland, and she is at present the guest of our townsman, Bailie Darsie and his wife, Arli Titana Marama of Tahiti.

STABBED HIMSELF.

Late Wednesday a native drayman named Kehoma, living on upper Kinau street above the Mormon church, stabbed himself in the left side with a pocket knife. He is not badly hurt and will soon be all right again. Despondency is supposed to have caused the rash deed. The man had been drinking quite heavily.

MERCHANT ILL.

E. S. Kubey, the Hotel street jeweler, was taken quite ill about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and had to be taken to his home, where he has since been lying in a very bad condition. He had been slightly ailing for several days, but would not surrender to the encroachment of malaria upon his system, which caused the final collapse.

OFF FOR MAUI.

These Stars will go to Maui tomorrow to engage in the inter island base ball contest on Saturday: L. Hart, D. McNichol, S. P. Woods, J. O. Carter, Jr., Babbitt, D. Ross, C. Willis, T. Pryce, P. Lishman, C. Conrad, W. Wilder and H. Wilder.

ANTONE ROSA, SR.

Death Last Evening of an Aged Citizen of Long Residence.

Antone Rosa, Sr., father of Judge A. Rosa, died at his home, Kalihi-waena, about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening of heart failure, aged 71. The funeral took place from the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery at Kalihi.

Mr. Rosa was a native of Portugal, though he had lived in Hawaii forty-six years. He leaves five sons, as follows: Antone, Jr., Manuel, Joseph, Levi and George. All live on Oahu. Deceased had been ailing for about ten days. When Judge Rosa left his father Wednesday afternoon to go to the Kohala term, death to the aged man was a question of merely a few hours. The parting was quite touching, the Judge being all of a favorite son.

NEW DEPARTURE!

The undersigned beg to announce that on and after

THURSDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 1ST,

The Unrivalled

Anheuser Busch Beer

Will be served on Draught at the Hawaiian Hotel.

We quote from a letter of Anheuser Busch Brewing Association, dated Sept. 8th, the following:

Your honorable firm having represented us for so many years, we believe it is useless to call your attention to the merits of our article, but we should like to repeat again and call your attention to the fact that ours is the only pure barley malt beer manufactured, and corn cereals and other adulterants, as well as acids, for the preservation of beer, are unknown in our establishment. With the above you may go before the public and publish the same.

ANHEUSER BUSCH BREWING ASSO.

This beer received the highest awards at the World's Columbian Exposition. No connoisseur of ours can add to its deservedly high reputation. Its introduction in any and every market establishes it as the favorite. It is without a peer! without a rival! and even without a competitor!

To bring it within the reach of all it will be sold at the prevailing price of 12½c per glass. Let everyone get the best for the least money.
